

The Grace & Charm of Burrillville

The Welcome mat is out at nearby Grace Note Farm for a distinctively different farm visit and luncheon experience.

This 18th century farm and historic New England Inn is located on the edge of the George Washington Management Area, which is protected state land known for its riding and walking trails, quiet ponds and dancing streams.

Your host, who specializes in hearth cooking and recipes of period, will demonstrate cooking techniques nearly lost to the modern chef. You'll be surprised and pleased with an unforgettable meal.

A full farm experience at Grace Note includes collecting fresh eggs, picking fresh vegetables, and hanging out with Peanut the pony and Eyeore the donkey. Call (401) 567-0354 to book your Grace Note Farm Experience.

A short ride to Harrisville for an afternoon performance at the Assembly Theater will charm and entertain you, as will the falls at Freedom Park, adjacent to the theater. Click on the link below for a listing of upcoming events at the Assembly.

The village of Harrisville is also host to the Jesse M. Smith Memorial Library, an excellent and highly recommended stop. Known for its special collections on the subject of Antiques, the library includes authoritative materials on their purchase, sale, repair, and maintenance. Their Early American Collection explores the cultural and social aspects of life with emphasis on architecture and domestic arts.

This is a suggested itinerary. No recommendation is implied.
